Rules & Notes

1. All applications are subject to review of the 2019 Memorial Cup Host Society; any additional information required will be requested in follow-up correspondence.
2. Performances last 60 minutes, which includes set-up and tear-down time.
3. There are limited performance opportunities each day; performers with the most flexibility in their availability will be given preference.
4. The Kubota Fan Zone will be open to the public for three (3) hours each day leading up to the start of every game. i.e. 8:00PM puck drop, the Kubota Fan Zone will be open from 4:00PM – 7:00PM. A full schedule will be provided. There will be 2-3 performance slots each day the Kubota Fan Zone is open.

5. The Kubota Fan Zone will also be open during the morning/early afternoon (10:00AM-12:00PM & 1:00PM-3:00PM) to schools who want to visit for a field trip. Performers who are interested in performing during the day for school groups please indicate on application.
6. The Kubota Fan Zone is looking for a variety of performers/entertainers. We encourage any and all potential applicants to submit an application for review.
7. Applications with examples of performance, or references will be given preference.
8. Please include any performance fees that are applicable for you.
9. Applications are due by end of day Thursday, March 14th, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted.
